III. Agenda

1. Petitions from the Public

Peggy Germain expressed concern that she felt the budget timeline, as outlined in Village Ordinance 119, was not being followed with fidelity. Ms. Germain sought clarification regarding the budget.

President Geisler clarified the budget would be reviewed fund by fund, line by line under the next agenda item, at which time he would continue to recognize the public's budget questions in real time.

A discussion was had regarding the budget development timeframe, budget material distribution process/timeline, and stated concerns that trustees and public did not have adequate time to review budget related materials.

Motion made by Nathan Anderson and seconded by Virginia Dwyer to recess the hearing until 4:00 PM, Thursday, February 28, 2019 in order for trustees to have more time to review the budget.

President David Geisler conducted a voice vote:

Yeas: 3 Nays: 3

Motion Defeated

Individual Votes were as follows:

Yes: Anderson, Rowe, Dwyer

No: King, Harrer, Geisler

2. Review FY 2020 Proposed Budget

President Geisler led a line by line review of the Proposed Budget for FY 2020 as recommended by the finance committee. President Geisler and the council clarified budget items according to inquiries made.
